The return (if any) you receive on such early termination is likely to be different from the scenarios described above and may be less than the amount you invested.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

► RISK INDICATOR

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product until 9 September 2030. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to sell your product easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator (SRI) is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class.

This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

You will receive payments in the product's currency, which may be different from your domestic currency. In this case, be aware of currency risk. The final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

For detailed information about all risks please refer to the risk sections of the legal documentation as specified in the section 'Other relevant information' below.

► INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE INFORMATION

Factors affecting the product performance at the end of the recommended holding period

The product return at the end of the recommended holding period or upon early redemption, will principally be affected by (1) the performance of the underlying and (2) the manufacturer's creditworthiness, which can have a material impact on your return if, for example, BNP Paribas S.A. is unable to make payments that become due on the product.

What could affect my returns positively?

- An increase, in the Reference Price of the underlying

What could affect my returns negatively?

- A decrease, in the Reference Price of the underlying
- The issuer's or guarantor's inability to make payments when they fall due

The factors listed above provide general guidance on how changes in the Reference Price of the underlying may affect your return if you hold the product to maturity. The precise impact will depend on the timing and magnitude of these changes, and the above list should not be viewed as guaranteeing a particular outcome. See "What is this product?" for further information of the payments you may receive will be calculated.

Additional factors affecting the price of the product in the secondary market

The performance of the product in the secondary market will also be affected by the volatility of the underlying, the dividend yield of the underlying, the product's remaining time to maturity, interest rates, exchange rates, and credit spreads.

Outcomes in severely adverse market conditions

In severely adverse market conditions, if you hold the product to the end of the recommended holding period, you may lose your entire investment. This does not take into account a situation where BNP Paribas S.A. is unable to pay you. If you sell the product prior to maturity, in severely adverse market conditions, your return on the product may be lower than what you would have received if you held the product to the end of the recommended holding period and may be as low as zero.

WHAT HAPPENS IF BNP PARIBAS S.A. IS UNABLE TO PAY OUT?

Should the Issuer default or file for bankruptcy, you have the right to seek payment from the Guarantor pursuant to an unconditional and irrevocable guarantee of any amount due. Should the Guarantor also default, file for bankruptcy or in case of bail-in, you may suffer a loss up to the total amount invested.

The product is not covered by any statutory investor compensation or guarantee scheme.

Investors should note that BNP Paribas, acting as Guarantor, is licensed as a credit institution in France and as such is subject to the resolution regime introduced by the EU Bank Recovery and Resolution Directive of 15 May 2014. This regulation, among others, gives resolution authorities the power to amend the key terms of the guarantee, to reduce the amounts payable by the Guarantor under the terms of the guarantee (including a possible reduction to zero) and to convert the amounts due under the guarantee into shares or other securities or other obligations of the Guarantor. Investors may not be able to recover all or even part of the amount due under the product (if any) from the Guarantor under the guarantee or may receive a different security issued by the Guarantor in place of the amount (if any) due to the Investors under the product by the Issuer, which may be worth significantly less than the amount due to investors under the product at maturity.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off, ongoing and incidental costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest GBP 10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.
